

Biography for Sasha Kamper, CFA

Sasha Kamper is a Private Placement Portfolio Manager at American Equity Investment Life Insurance Company. At American Equity, Sasha leads a team of five analysts and manages a $4 billion private placement debt platform. Previously, Sasha worked at Principal Global Investors, LLC for over 25 years. At Principal Global Investors, Sasha worked with both private placement and public corporate debt, as well as managed debt restructurings and performed asset/liability management functions. Sasha currently serves on the Regulatory Committee of the Private Placement Investors Association (PPiA), and has previously served on the CFA Society of Iowa Board of Directors. Sasha is a graduate of Drake University (A&S-'91 and MBA-'95) and has earned the right to use the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.