Jessica Rissmiller is a Vice President and Private Credit Attorney at Voya Investment Management. She advises on a wide range of private credit transactions, including corporate lending, project finance, infrastructure, structured finance, and private placement investments. Jessica partners with investment teams throughout the deal lifecycle, from underwriting and transaction execution through portfolio management and amendments, helping identify and manage legal and transactional risk.